

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Sacred and Strong: Upholding our Matriarchal Roles has been developed and evolved over a journey of several years under the partnership of the Office of the Chief Medical Officer (OCMO) and Office of the Provincial Health Officer (OPHO).

The OCMO and OPHO respectfully acknowledge the matriarchs, Elders and knowledge keepers who, for generations, have helped to retain and pass on the knowledge, teachings and wisdom that have guided the work. We extend our deep and humble gratitude to the First Nations women and girls, matriarchs and Elders from around the province who agreed to share their stories, and whose voices ground this report. We also acknowledge with gratitude the many individuals from both of the OCMO and OPHO teams who contributed their time and expertise in pulling together the information.

The work of Sacred and Strong: Upholding our Matriarchal Roles has been led by Dr. Evan Adams and Dr. Shannon McDonald of the OCMO, and Dr. Bonnie Henry and Dr. Danièle Behn Smith of the OPHO. They are grateful to the work and dedication of the FNHA project team who championed this work:

- Anita Christoff, Editor
- Carrie Gadsby, Communications
- Clare Mochrie, Project Management, Story Gatherer, Writer
- Ersin Asliturk, Data Advisor
- Laurel Lemchuk-Favel, Data Advisor
- Lindsay Beck, Writer and Researcher
- Nikisha Khare, Writer and Researcher
- Dr. Unjali Malhotra, Advisor

The OCMO and OPHO are also grateful to the OPHO Report Team for their contributions, and the OPHO Epidemiology Team for support with data.

The CMO and PHO are grateful for the beautiful work of the artists and designers:

- Regula Appenzeller, (Humble Designer), Graphic Design
- Melanie Rivers, Artwork
- Melody Charlie, Photography

The CMO and PHO are deeply grateful for the words courageously shared by Cary-Lee Calder and the story of her niece, Angelina Pete, who we hope and pray will soon return home to her family and community.

The CMO and PHO are also grateful to all those who generously contributed to the work in countless ways through their stories, wisdom, input and support:
